Kandagawa River
Tsubouchi Shoyo, a great pioneer of Japanese literature and drama, who taught at Waseda University
Okuma Garden
Toden Arakawa Line
Waseda Sta.
G
Kansen-en Park
Mizu Inari Jinja Shrine
Monument to the Assistance of Horibe Yasubei
Theatre Museum
Statue of Shigenobu Okuma
Okuma Kaikan
Monument to Tajimamori
Former site of the residence of Yui Shosetsu
Former site of Takadanobaba riding ground
Former site of Tomizuka ancient burial mound
Aizu Museum
Waseda University
Former site of Takada Fuji
Hosen-ji Temple
Street of many used book stores
Saisho-ji Temple
Waseda-dori Ave.
Ryozen-ji Temple
Rakuba Jizo statue
Sosan-ji Temple
Tozai Line Waseda Sta.
Birthplace of Natsume Soseki
Soseki Park
Tamon-in Temple
Jorin-ji Temple
Birthplace of Sugita Genpaku
Ana Hachimangu Shrine
Hosho-ji Temple
The Deathplace of Natsume Soseki
Seikan-ji Temple
Raiko-ji Temple
Hosho-ji Temple
Waseda is famously associated with Soseki, the national writer
Former site of the residence of Arishima Takeo
Cemetery of Hayashi Clan
Kokoku-ji Temple
Hosshin-ji Temple