Example and Guide to Extraordinary Cash Payment (70,000 yen) as a measure against rising prices in Shinjuku City

In order to support households facing difficult conditions as the result of price increases, Shinjuku City will provide support through an Extraordinary Cash Payment (70,000 yen). Shinjuku City has sent a confirmation sheet to those who are eligible for this payment based on their residence tax status, etc. for the fiscal year 2023. If you wish to receive this payment, please check the below procedures for receiving the payment and the enclosed example of a completed form, and submit the completed confirmation sheet to Shinjuku City Office.

 \sim Payments cannot be received unless the confirmation sheet is submitted. \sim

Payment eligibility

Heads of any household recorded in the Basic Resident Register of Shinjuku City where all members of the household are exempt from the per-capita residence tax in 2023 as of December 1, 2023 (cut-off date).

- * Households with only dependent family members, etc., of individuals subject to the per-capita residence tax in 2023 are not eligible.
- * Households that are exempt from the residence tax in 2023 and have already received the cash payment (70,000 yen) from a different local government are not eligible.

Procedure to receive payment

- 1 Fill out the required items on the confirmation sheet.
- ② In the attachment field of the confirmation sheet, attach a copy of the bank book or cash card for the transfer account that shows the name of the bank, the branch name or number, the account number, and the account holder (katakana).
- 3 Put the confirmation sheet (separate it along the dotted line) in the enclosed return envelope, and then send it.

[Note] Shinjuku City will check the latest tax information, and the payment will not be made if you do not meet the requirements.

Return deadline

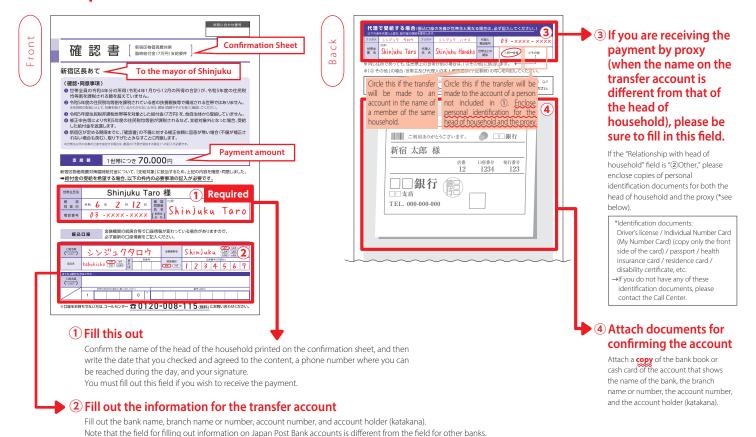

April 30, 2024 (Tues.)

- * Postmarked by this date
- Olf you would like to receive the payment, you must send the documents by the deadline.
- O You may not be able to receive the payment after the deadline.

< Items for confirmation and consent>

- 1 The income of all members of the household for 2022 (total income from January through December 2022) does not exceed the amount assessed for the (per-capita) residence tax in 2023.
- The household is not comprised of only dependent family members, etc., of individuals subject to the (per-capita) residence tax in 2023.
 - * Regarding the residence tax, if you are unsure whether someone is a dependent, check with the family (parents, child, etc.)
- The household is exempt from the residence tax in 2023 and has not received the cash payment (70,000 yen) from a different local government.
- 🗿 If it is determined that you are ineligible for this payment because you became subject to the (per-capita) residence tax for 2023 due to an amended filing, etc., you will return the payment received.
- 5 If no response is made by the deadline set by Shinjuku City to a request for corrections to an error in the confirmation sheet (including cases where the error is not corrected), I agree that this will be interpreted as a withdrawal of my application.
 - * If you designate an account in the name of someone other than the head of the household, you must fill out the "Receiving the payment by proxy" section on the reverse side of the form.

Example T

Inquires related to the extraordinary support payment for rising commodity prices

■ Shinjuku City Extraordinary Support Payment for Rising Prices Call Center

20120-008-115 (free of charge)

■ Shinjuku City website

https://www.city.shinjuku.lg.jp/

